

Weeks later Newark fingerprint expert examined cards and no evidence of fingerprints on any exhibit (27).

Visited Hall house with Beekman Sunday morning. Mrs. Hall's statement not taken down (30).

When Beekman finished, Totten questioned Mrs. Hall on basis of night watchman, William Phillip's, statement (30).

Totten has no notes and depends on recollection of conversations (32).

Bergen asked Totten's resignation in April, 1926. Now a Constable, no other employment (33,34).

Employed by Mirror immediately after resigning (34).

Services solicited by Philip Payne (34).

Delivered no papers to Payne (36).

State has all exhibits (36,37).

REDIRECT:

Burial without autopsy (38).

Wrangle about alleged rubbing of fingers on eye glasses (35-41).

Wrangle between Totten and Simpson as to statements of Totten's conversation with Long about cut throat (42-4).